

Disclaimer for Safer Solutions website

The information given on this website has been checked as far as possible against available official publications, reference books on toxicology and chemical hazards, and recent scientific literature. The suggestions for action are guidelines.

The website does not claim to include information about all chemicals used in and about the house and the absence of an entry or a health hazard warning does not mean that a substance is safe under all conditions.

If you have specific concerns about the chemicals or proposals on this website, please consult a medical practitioner. Total Environment Centre disclaims liability for all loss, damage or injury, financial or otherwise, suffered by any persons acting upon or relying on this website or the information contained in it, whether resulting from their negligence or from the negligence of employees, agents, consultants or advisers or from any other cause whatsoever.
